

FEAR OF BRITISH HELDS NORWEGIAN SHIP IN PORT HERE

Reported Delay in Sailing of Sommerstad Said to Be Due to Presence of Essex Off Delaware Capes.

Mystery surrounding the delay in the sailing from this port of the Norwegian steamship Sommerstad, which cleared a week ago, has aroused much speculation in shipping circles.

The vessel is reported to be heavily laden with coal and general cargo usually reckoned as ship's supplies.

According to her clearance papers, she is ostensibly scheduled to sail for Cadiz, Spain. The cause of delay was not explained by Captain Axelsen, master of the vessel, or its agent, William J. Grandfield.

Man supposed to know the port's business thoroughly when asked for an explanation merely shrugged his shoulders and inconspicuously replied: "I am the British cruiser Essex lying off the Delaware Capes?"

This remark is taken to indicate that the vessel's cargo is contraband goods and liable to seizure. Some shipping men said that the ultimate destination of the goods might be the German cruisers Dresden and Karlsruhe, now playing havoc with British and French commerce in the Caribbean Sea.

It has been charged that these cruisers, which have never put into any port since war was declared for a renewal of their supplies, have been receiving cargo at sea which have been shipped from this port.

An investigation into these charges develop a possibility of their truth, as four Norwegian steamers have sailed from this port within the past few weeks carrying cargoes consisting of canned goods, salt beef, salt pork, bacon, ham, rice, sugar, cheese, and other articles.

The first vessel to leave was the Norwegian steamship Nipos, Captain Neilsen. She sailed on August 22 for Monterey, Liberia and Tenerife, for orders. Her cargo was valued at $22,167. She was followed on September 2 by the John Ludvig Mowhinkel, with a similar cargo for the same destinations, valued at $13,231.

On September 8 the Norwegian steamship Unta sailed for Cadiz, Spain, with a cargo valued at $28,323. The Sommerstad, scheduled for the same port as the Fram, now being laden.

In the charges that vessels leaving this port have been keeping the German cruisers in supplies, it was indicated that fabulous sums are being paid the owners for the risk. It was said that the vessels are instructed to go to a certain position at sea and there await the arrival of one of the cruisers which has been apprised by wireless of the vessel's sailing.

The following was the manifest of one of the vessels: Flour, 24,000 lbs. Sugar, 45 bags. Salt pork, 5000 lbs. Vinegar, 1 barrel. Salt, 25 lbs. Milk, conl., 9 cases. Beans, 200 lbs. Rice, 100 lbs. PRESIDENT SATISFIED WITH MEXICAN SITUATION

Discredited Stories of Trouble, But Will See Personal Investigator. WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—While the Administration affects not to be disconcerted at the reported turbulent conditions in northern Mexico, nevertheless President Woodrow Wilson, the President's personal investigator in Mexico, will make a report to the President Wednesday on his recent inquiries into conditions south of the Rio Grande.

The President expressed to arriving today his complete satisfaction with the manner in which the new Mexican Government conducted the investigation. He was inclined to place little credence in the reports of disturbances in northern Mexico emanating from El Paso.

The State Department also refused to be disconcerted by the unrest in Chihuahua and Sonora. Officials declared that they had no reports from United States representatives of any movements which might indicate a break between General Carranza and General Villa.

BABY SLEEPS WITH BEARS

"Big Deggie Play," All Lost Child Says of Experience. FIFIELD, Wis., Sept. 21.—Kept alive for two days by association with two bear cubs and their mother, Baby Ball, the 2-year-old son of a settler north of here, was found late at night recently asleep in the underbrush and, though starving, was not suffering from exposure. The searcher saw the sign of bears near where the child was found, and old woodmen declared that the babe was kept alive by sleeping with the cubs and their mother.

All that the child can say is: "Big doggie play; baby hungry." The child wandered away one night. The next day the entire county joined in a search for the little one. The day's work was resumed and the searchers found their first trace of the youngster when a scrap of his torn jeans and a button were found in a raspberry bush miles from his home.

The place was all trampled with bear prints and the child's father became frantic, thinking the youngster had been killed by an angry she-bear. Instead, when at 9 o'clock at night the hunters stirred the bears in the brush, they found the baby alone and unharmed. The crashing of the underbrush indicated that the bear and cubs left just before the searchers arrived. The Northern Wisconsin nights are cold and the child would have frozen had not he been mothered by the old bear, woodsmen declare.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 21.—Judge C. A. Keller, of San Antonio, Tex., Grand Sire of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, threw down the gauntlet to intolerant followers who would draw sectarian lines, in his annual address at the opening session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge this morning.

Responding to an address of welcome by Attorney General John W. Wescott, of New Jersey, Grand Sire Keller said: "Odd Fellowship draws no distinctions between Moslem and Christian, between Jew and Gentile. It is non-sectarian and non-political and will remain so as long as the order lasts. That is a fundamental law. We make no attempt to control a member's religious belief or action but we do say he shall not attack Catholicism or any other religion in the lodge room or in the columns of a publication bearing the name of the order."

The Judiciary Commission, it was said today, would report adversely on the action of Grand Sire Keller in overturning jurisdictional lines in Oklahoma, a move resulting in the dissolution of 32 encampments.

J. M. Gowdy, Colorado, has taken the lead in the race for deputy grand sire. Women, who attended the opening session in large numbers, were not permitted to enter when the Sovereign Grand Lodge went into business session. "We are happy to have had you with us, but are forced to leave you now," the chairman said. Many of the indignant sisters remained, peering through the windows.
